2. CANCELLATIONS:

A. Any client intending to cancel must notify THP in writing immediately. Cancellations more than eight weeks prior to the event booked will make the client liable to a charge of not more than 50% of the full invoice. If cancellation occurs less than eight weeks prior to the event date, cancellation charge will be for the entire invoice.

B. Should the event, the subject of the booking be cancelled due to circumstances beyond the control of THP, the client will not be entitled any compensation or damages. THP will endeavour to arrange a suitable alternative, or a rescheduling of the event. If neither can be arranged to the satisfaction of THP, a refund will be paid less an administrative charge of ten per cent of the contract price.

3. ALTERATIONS TO EVENTS:

A. Every reasonable effort will be made to provide the event as advertised to the client, but THP reserves the right to make any alterations to event arrangements, including changes in time, date and venue, modifications in programmes or provision of alternative transport and facilities, deemed necessary.

B. THP may impose additional charges over the contract prices payable by the client prior to the event as a result of adverse fluctuation in exchange rates or increases in the cost of travel, fuel or accommodation or other expenses being incurred in connection with the event which said cost increases will be set out in the final invoice payable within fourteen days of receipt by the client provided always that such increases do not exceed ten per cent (10%) of the event price.
