NATIONS CHAMPIONSHIP 2026

The inaugural season of the Nations Championship will see Ireland kick off the 'Northern Series' under Friday Night Lights at Aviva Stadium on November 6th, against Argentina. A week later, a clash with Fiji who Ireland most recently played in 2024, scoring eight tries to win that match 52-17.

Finally, we see the World Champions South Africa return to Dublin on November 21st. The Springboks recorded a powerful victory over Ireland in 2025, so this game will be a revenge mission for Andy Farrell's men. Ireland will then go on to the Grand Finals Weekend of the Nations Championship in London the following week.

2027 GUINNESS SIX NATIONS

The 2027 Guinness Men's Six Nations starts and ends with exciting night time kick offs at Aviva Stadium. The Championship starts with Ireland v England on Friday night and ends on Super Saturday with a clash against France.

The English team will arrive in Dublin looking to avenge their record loss against Ireland during the 2026 Championship in Twickenham. This fixture is vital for both teams as the competition is all about momentum, so a win in Round 1 is crucial. On the final day of the tournament, the reigning champions France come to the Aviva Stadium in what could be a winner-takes-all decider between two of rugby's most exciting teams.
